ROMANS 11:36

"What is the deepest reason God created the universe, placed humans on a sphere called the earth, witnesses the violence and inhumanity of his creatures, and some day will return it all to uprightness?"

In short, the answer is that God's fundamental interest is his own glory (Rom. 11:36). God delights in himself alone, for who is the measure of His worth and beauty but He himself alone! For God to take delight in less than himself is to delight in inferiorities."
