

We must be the voice for the voiceless in a culture that desires to silence them before they can be heard!

"Something nonhuman doesn't become human by getting older and bigger. Whatever is human is human from the beginning."

History is our teacher: The church in Germany was silent and their silence led to more than six-million Jews being exterminated.

"Responding to God's Call"

1 Kings 15:9-15, 2 Chron. 14:1-8, 15:1-18

Critical Concept: When God calls you to be "wholly given to Him," it requires that you set aside anything that draws your affections away from Him and to give yourself fully to the transformation of your affections through His living Word.

I. Asa's Response to God's.

A. The spiritual climate of Judah.

B. God's call through Azariah.

C. Asa's response to God.

II. Responding to God's Call to Himself.

A. Being honest with God ... and ourselves.

B. Negatively: Remove any obstacles to a God glorifying life.

C. Positively: Be renewed in the spirit of your mind.
