

The LORD is the Good Shepherd ...

Following Him Leads to His Best for Me!

*"How can a young man keep his way pure?
By guarding it according to your word.
With my whole heart I seek you;
let me not wander from your commandments!"*

(Psalm 119:9&10)

"The LORD is My Shepherd ... I'm Learning to Listen"

Psalm 23, John 10:27-28, & Sel. Scripture

Critical Concept: The invitation to follow the Good Shepherd brings a person into a beautiful relationship that grows and matures as they learn to distinguish His voice and trust His leadership.

I. Invited into a Beautiful Relationship

A. Beauty is discovered when He calls our name

B. Beauty is discovered when we yield

II. How do we Hear the Good Shepherd's Voice

A. It begins with a spiritual rebirth

B. God speaks to you through His Word

C. Reading for transformation ... not just information

D. Guard your heart against "selective hearing"

III. The Relationship Between Repentance & Hearing

What is God Saying to Me? (Personal Application)