

Step One in Christian Parenting ...

I recall your sincere faith
that first lived
in your grandmother Lois
& in your mother Eunice
-2 Timothy 1:5

Your children and grandchildren must respond individually to Christ, but the sincerity of your walk with Christ is likely the most influential witness to the truth claims of the gospel that they will encounter.

So here's the Question We All Must Ponder:
If their faith turned out just like your's, would it lead them to have a vibrant and sincere faith?

"Embracing Christian Parenting"

Selected Scripture

Critical Concept: Every Christian parent/grandparent should see their home as the primary mission field where they prayerfully provide Christian nurture that leads their children/grandchildren, by God's grace, to become fully devoted followers of Christ.

I. Embrace the True Spiritual Condition of Your Child.

- A. The spiritual state of your child.

- B. The resulting desire for your child.

II. Embrace the Powerful Influence of your Witness.

- A. The influence of a sincere faith.

- B. The importance of spiritual instruction

III. Embrace the Daily Need to Nurture Their Growth.

What is God Saying to Me? (Personal Application)