

"The Deception of Mixed Motives"

2 Kings 10:15-36

Critical Concept: God is quite capable to see through veiled devotion and justly deals with each individual according to his true devotion.

I. Jehu's True Colors Bleeding Through.

A. An unguarded instrument.

B. An unsuspecting pawn.

C. An unclean motive.

II. God's Assessment of Jehu.

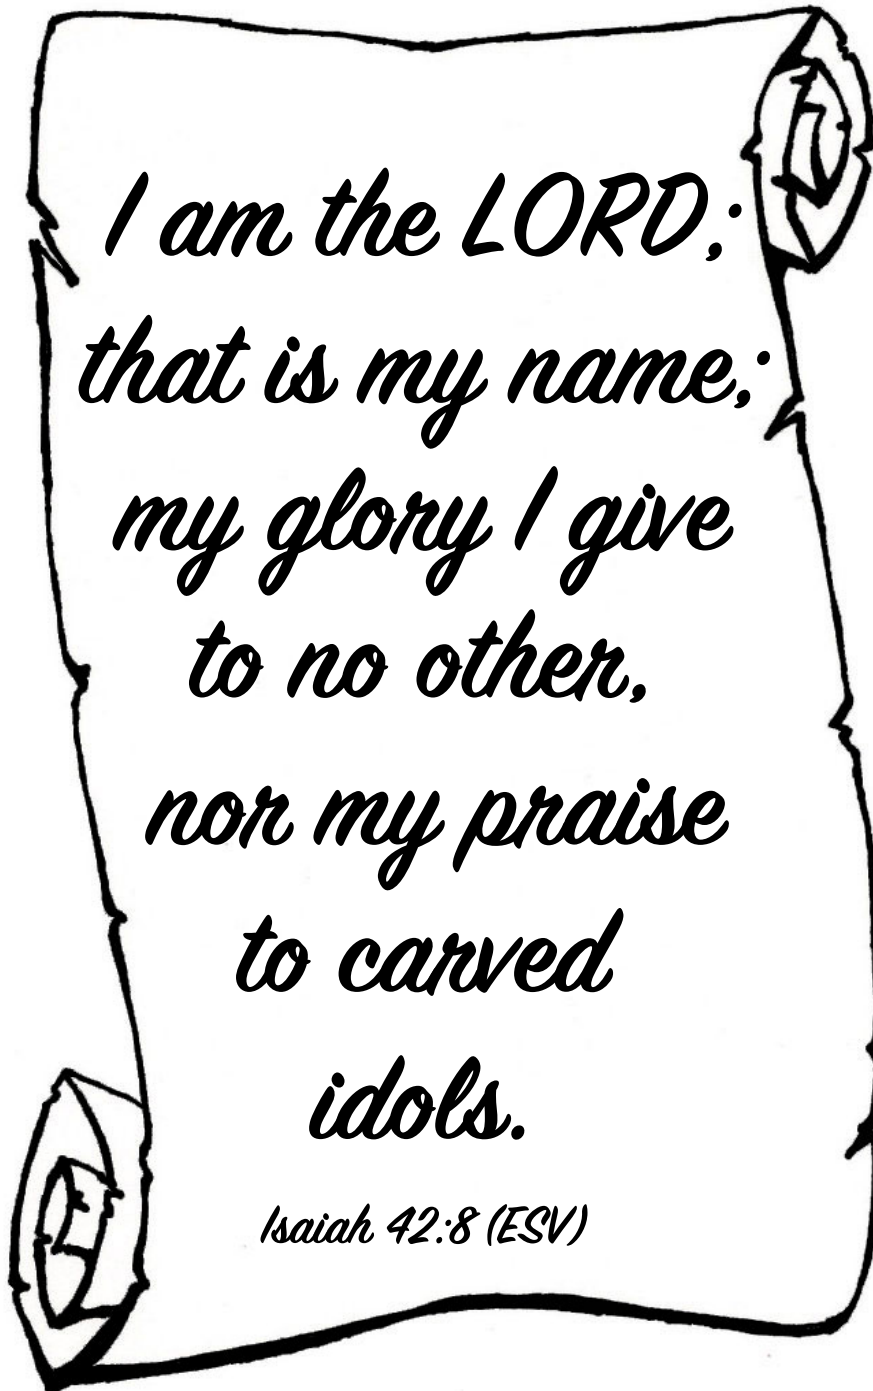

A. BUT ... it's not always a good word.

B. Another BUT ... God's assessment.

III. Evaluating our True Colors.

A. Jehu ... We must examine the true nature of our devotion.

B. Jehonadab ... We must seek God's help in discerning evil.

*I am the LORD;
that is my name;
my glory I give to no other,
nor my praise
to carved idols.*
