

*"This is how one should regard us,
as servants of Christ and stewards of
the mysteries of God.
Moreover, it is required
of stewards
that they be found faithful."
(I Cor. 4:1&2)*

"Being the Church in a Broken World"

Selected Scripture

Critical Concept: The church is a living body of called-out people who have been graciously reconciled to God and entrusted with the call to be reflective of Christ in a broken world.

I. The Church: Called-Out Ones.

> Called out from what?

> Distinct from any other group of people in the world:

Distinct Religiously:

Distinct Civilly:

II. The Called-Out Church in a Hostile World.

> "These men are drunk ..."

> Confronted by the "Old Authority" ... Standing in the "New Authority."

III. The Powerful Difference of "Christ in You."
