

God's Promises Provide Stable Footing

Man's Uncertainty
Produces Fear

"Darkness ... Hope: What Do You Choose?"

2 Kings 16, 2 Chron. 28, Isaiah 7:1-25

Critical Concept: Darkness and rebellion surround the lives of individuals who choose to live independent of God, yet despite man's rejection, hope is graciously provided through Jesus to all who humbly trust Him.

I. The Turmoil & Fear of Life.

II. God's Unexpected Grace.

- A. God's calming assurance ... because of His promises.
- B. God keeps coming back ... despite man's rejection.
- C. Be aware ... there are consequences for rejecting grace.

III. What's Your Response to Grace?

What is God Saying to Me? (Personal Application)